

May 1975, Graduation charter class* - Dr. Kenneth Hagin

And the harvest that is to be reaped shall be reaped, for the harvest is plenteous and the labourers are few. Pray ye therefore the Lord of the Harvest to send forth labourers into His harvest and so men, yea if you please, some would call them a new breed, shall rise up and go forth. They will not be afraid of the devil, and they will have no fear of men, but with boldness shall they speak and shall challenge the very strongholds of the devil. There shall be a great shaking, but those settled in on the Rock of Ages shall stand. So shout above the storm, and see above the darkness the light of God breaking upon the horizon of time, and they shall be reflections of that light that shall shine forth out of the darkness. The blinded eyes of Satan's kin shall be opened by men,; men inspired of God, equipped by the Spirit, called by the Lord, set in the Body of Christ to shine, to testify, to preach, to minister. And so like a giant that body shall rise and shake off those things that would hinder and break asunder the bonds of tradition of religion that has bound them and go forth with the pure revelation of truth. They'll cause the lame to leap for joy, the blind to see both spiritually and physically. They shall sound throughout the land the cry of Isaiah to the Lord. Great is His name and greatly to be praised and the last soul will have been won, the last spirit shall have been saved and that Body will have been completed and then the cry shall come forth. Behold the Bridegroom cometh. Go ye out to meet Him, and in the ages to come, ions and ions to come that body of believers shall shine forth His glory forever and ever.

Graduation, 1977

HO! LISTEN! Men are asking the question of the world, What about tomorrow?
Are our tomorrows all dark? All filled with crisis and tragedy-ridden?
Is life to continue as it is? Will the darkness fleet away? Will sin abound?
And Satan everyone surround?

But YEA saith the Lord of hosts; There shall arise in this hour an Army of the Lord. Men -- common men, Women -- common women, Men and Women, Young men and Young women, that shall understand their authority in the body of Christ! And know the reality of the Name of Jesus! And in the power of the Spirit take that Name, take that Authority, with the Word of God, which is the Light and dispel darkness. And the darkness shall flee away. And the crises shall cease to exist. And the blessings of the Lord shall flow like a mighty river.

And yea...yea....Though in the world men will look on the darkness that comes. And they'll see only the problem and problems that shall keep arising, and crises that shall appear on the scene from day to day, and week to week, and month to month; But there are those who look beyond the horizon of time -- And who look into 'Eternity' There, with a glimpse of the Glory World.

As they look at Him, who is the Eternal One, even the Son of God; They shall go forth with the Glory of God. And be changed from glory to Glory as they behold His face. And a work shall be done in this hour.

That has not yet been wrought. And a job shall be accomplished. And men shall arise up and call then blessed. Blessed are the feet of those who carry glad tidings of peace.

What will happen? What will be the outcome? What does the future hold? Men of the world seek unto those who are in the occult and false spirits, and witchcraft, and fortune tellers, astrology, endeavoring to find answers.

But because you have the ANSWER -- go tell them! Go tell them! Go tell them! Go tell them! Go tell them! Go tell them! Go tell them! Go tell them!

A new day has dawned! A new morning has come! And the coming of the Lord is nigh!
